Background

The Construction Leadership Council (CLC) agreed that from January 2015 the industry, including trade associations, contractors, clients, and government should specify and promote card schemes carrying the CSCS logo with no equivalents accepted.

Build UK supports the CLC decision and its members have agreed to consistently implement its requirements which are set out in this standard.

Requirements of the Construction (Design and Management) Regulations 2015

It is a requirement under the Construction (Design and Management) Regulations 2015 (CDM 2015) for contractors to ensure any individual they employ or appoint to work on a construction site has the skills, knowledge, training and experience to carry out the work they will be employed to do in a way that secures the health and safety of themselves and others. This should be assessed and managed appropriately to ensure that individuals are undertaking the appropriate occupation at the appropriate level i.e. trainee, skilled, supervisory, managerial.

While the HSE guidance on implementing CDM 2015 states that, “Sole reliance should not be placed on industry certification cards or similar being presented to them [contractors] as evidence that a worker has the right qualities”, the guidance makes clear that “Nationally recognised qualifications (such as National Vocational Qualifications (NVQs) and Scottish Vocational Qualifications (SVQs)) can provide contractors with assurance that the holder has the skills, knowledge, training and experience to carry out the task(s) for which they are appointed”.

Application

The CLC decision and card schemes carrying the CSCS logo both relate to construction occupations only. It is recognised that due to the diverse nature of construction projects, there are occasions where a person may need to access site to perform a non-construction occupation or activity e.g. delivery of materials to site, catering staff, security guards, visitors etc. and it is not expected that these individuals will carry a CSCS card. They may however still need to provide evidence that they can carry out their task safely. They may also require a separate risk assessment and additional supervision.

Additional Training

In addition to a card carrying the CSCS logo individuals may need to have undertaken supplementary training to operate specific machinery, plant, or tools or to carry out certain activities. E.g. a steelwork erector would hold a steel erector card issued by CSCS and if required to use a MEWP would also hold an IPAF or other relevant card to cover this training.

Queries regarding suitable additional training should be directed to the Principle Contractor or relevant trade association.

Health and Safety Training Requirements

In addition to recognising card schemes carrying the CSCS logo and the supplementary training to operate specific machinery, plant, or tools, Build UK Contractor Members require additional health and safety training, as specified below, to be undertaken by their directors and those working on their sites including sub-contractors. The awarding body would usually define the renewal period for health and safety training, but this should not exceed every five years.

Additionally, any course listed on the CITB training directory with the key word “Build UK” will be accepted.

Frequently Asked Questions

Please note that any advice is given in good faith with the aim of providing general guidance on best practice. Build UK and the individuals and organisations responsible for the advice do not accept any liability arising in any way from relying on it. If you require advice on a specific issue, you should seek your own independent professional advice.

I am unable to renew my card due to Coronavirus, will it be accepted on site?

- CSCS has extended the period for card renewals to enable those who would have ordinarily needed to renew their card to access site.
- You can check the support measures that relate to the Health, Safety and Environment Test and your industry card on the Build UK website.

What if I have issues getting on to site?

- Make sure you have the correct CSCS card and the necessary health and safety training required as set out in the Build UK Training Standard
- Make sure the site has the latest version of the Build UK Training Standard
- If you still have an issue, then please contact Build UK at info@BuildUK.org.

What is a construction occupation?

For the purpose of the Build UK Training Standard, a construction occupation is defined as one for which a CSCS card, or a card featuring the CSCS logo can be obtained. Occupations including delivery drivers and security staff are not construction occupations and no card is required to access site.

What are the supervision requirements for a lone worker on site?

The Build UK Training Standard assumes that a supervisor is managing people onsite. A lone worker is carrying out a construction task and will not be a people manager. Where a lone worker is carrying out a task on site for a short period of time, the Principal Contractor would often provide a supervisor to put them to, and/or oversee their work.

What is the required supervisor to operative ratio?

The Build UK Training Standard does not recommend a figure for task supervisor to operative ratio. The Principal Contractor should define the ratio in line with the risk associated with each activity and this will vary depending on for example, the project and tasks being undertaken. The sub-contractor should agree this level of risk with the Principal Contractor prior to work commencing.

Should work experience participants hold a card featuring the CSCS logo?

No. Only those on site who will be carrying out a construction occupation need to hold a card featuring the CSCS logo. Work experience participants should accompany a skilled operative holding the relevant CSCS logo'd card. Site managers should follow the recommendations for non-construction occupations on the Site Access Flowchart and ensure a risk assessment has been carried out. Further information on managing work experience is available in the Build UK Work Experience Guide as well as on the CSCS website.

Should international employees hold a card featuring the CSCS logo?

There will be occasions where international visitors are required on site to oversee works and it may not be practical for them to hold a card featuring the CSCS logo. This will have been pre-agreed by the Principal Contractor and site management should refer to the risk assessment developed for this situation. International operatives who attend UK sites regularly and hold international qualifications can apply to UK Naric to check whether the qualification maps to a UK equivalent. If the qualification maps, the operative will be able to apply for a CSCS card by following the process on the CSCS website.

What is the process for reporting a fraudulent card?

If you suspect someone attempting to gain access to site using a fraudulent card, you should:

- Retain the card if possible
- Make photocopies of front and back
- Record cardholder's name and address if possible
- Ask cardholder where the card was obtained from
- Contact the local police and report the matter*
- Refuse access to site (subject to company rules).

Forward copies of all evidence to:

The Operations Team
CSCS Ltd
85 Tottenham Court Road
London
W1T 4TQ
Marked "SUSPECTED FRAUDULENT CARD"

Or:

Email report.it@citb.co.uk making sure to include copies of all evidence.

CSCS and CITB will fully support any prosecution with technical and factual evidence.

Please note: Contacting the police is at the discretion of each individual site and subject to company rules. CSCS and CITB always recommend contacting the police as this information can be helpful to the authorities when investigating issues such as modern day slavery, people trafficking and right to work investigations.*
